

BARRY ARTS FESTIVAL 17

Carol Ann Duffy and John Sampson

Saturday 24th June 5pm St Mary's Church Holton Rd

£12 online or £15 on the door

The Poet Laureate and her favourite court musician, bring over an hour of light and shade, laughter and reflection to Barry. Carol Ann will read from her acclaimed collections and John will take us on a virtuoso tour through musical highlights of the past 500 years played on a fascinating collection of period and modern instruments. They have collaborated for over 13 years.

Derrin Nauendorf

Saturday 15th July Doors 7pm West End Club £10

Australian born Derrin has forged a sound of incredible guitar skills, soulful vocals and powerful lyrics, having his lyrics to 'Shipwrecked' published in a text book for English Literature by Cambridge University press. Derrin recently released his 10th cd 'Crazy World' on American acoustic label Candyrat Records, followed by extensive touring which has taken him back to Australia, across Europe and a successful tour of Russia which ended in a sell out show at the Philharmonic Hall.

Patricia Cornelius, "DO NOT GO GENTLE"

Sat. 15th July 3-5pm. Crossway Church, Crossway St. CF63 4ET £5

A 'workshop'-style reading of an award-winning play which is coming to Barry in September, with a Q & A session and some hot-seating by the actors 'in character'. Includes tea/coffee and cakes. £5.00 on the door or contact 07982319456

Iain Matthews

Thursday 10th August Doors 7pm West End Club £10

Iain was a founder member and vocalist of Fairport Convention and played the original Woodstock stage with his band Matthews Southern Comfort also having a European No1 with a cover of Joni Mitchell's 'Woodstock' song. Still a prolific writer Matthews has released more than 20 albums in a career which has lasted over half a century.

Jess Robinson, Emyr Wyn Jones & Jeff Howard

Sat. 9th Sept. 7.30pm, St Mary's Church, Holton Rd £10

Three recognised soloists get together to perform a repertoire of opera, musical theatre and crossover pop. Jess has performed before at BAF and was a real hit in the Buccaneer pub where she received a standing ovation with a programme ranging from Handel to 'Son of a preacher man'. Jeff was born in Cardiff and needs no introduction to Welsh audiences. He has accompanied leading international singers including Bryn Terfel, Sir Willard White and Dennis O'Neill.

Joyful Spirit and Tim Reynolds

Saturday 7th October 7.30pm,
St Mary's Church, Holton Road £10

Joyful Spirit gospel choir from Bristol. Local favourite Tim Reynolds will comper and sing.

In association with

 newydd

